Cop snatches alleged gunman

A gunman who allegedly held up a Subway sandwich shop was arrested by a patrol officer who was driving by and chased him, Benicia police said yesterday.

Marcus Haynes, 25, of Oakland was arrested about a block away from the shop at 836 Southamption Road, shortly after 9 p.m. Thursday.

Officer Frank Hartig was in his patrol car when he observed the suspect running from the store.

Haynes was booked on suspicion of armed robbery.
